Mass Sunday vigil: Saturday at 6.00p.m. Sunday 10.30 a.m.
Confessions on Saturday at 5.30 p.m. and on request.

In the name of God the Father, in the name of God the Son,
in the name of God the Holy Spirit, in the name of God.
In the name of God the Father, in the name of God the Son,
in the name of God the Holy Spirit, in the name of God

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

A Reading from the book of Exodus 34: 4-6, 8-9

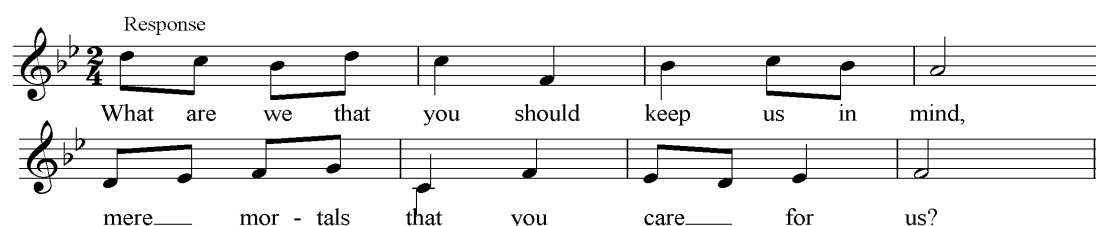

'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion'

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8

When I see the heavens which your hands have made,
moon and stars and everything which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you should ever care for him?

What are we that you should keep us in mind,
mere mortals that you care for us?

You have made him little less than any god,
you have blest and honoured him above all things
you have given him a share in your power, you have put creation underneath his feet.

What are we that you should keep us in mind,
mere mortals that you care for us?

A reading from the 2nd Letter to the Corinthians 13: 11-13

The grace of Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia. Glory to the Father, glory to the Son, glory to the Holy Spirit
now and for ever. Amen.
Alleluia, alleluia.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 3: 16-18

God sent his Son so that through him the world might be saved

Jesus said to Nicodemus:

‘God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost
but may have eternal life.
For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world,
but so that through him the world might be saved.
No one who believes in him will be condemned;
but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already,
because he has refused to believe in the name of God’s only Son.

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

During the Preparation of the Gifts

O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder, consider all the worlds thy hand has made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
How great thou art, how great thou art (2).

And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in that on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
he bled and died to take away my sin.
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart;
when I shall bow in humble adoration,
and there proclaim: my God, how great thou art.
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee

Jubilee Sanctus

Jubilee Memorial: When we eat this and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.
we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

Jubilee Lamb of God ...

Communion

Father, I pray for them: may they be one in us so that the world may believe it was you who sent me, it was you who sent me.

hymn

Be still and know that I am God (3).
I am the Lord that healeth thee (3)
In thee, O Lord, I put my trust (3).

HOSPITAL MINISTRY

‘Illness is part of our human condition. Yet, if illness is experienced in isolation and abandonment, unaccompanied by care and compassion, it can become inhumane’. Pope Francis.

To do this requires pastoral support which is sensitive and compassionate. This support is for patients, families and staff. There are priests, a deacon and lay people involved in providing this ministry.

IF YOU ARE ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL

When a person has been given a date for admission to hospital, and wishes the sacrament of the sick, it is helpful if they could contact their parish-priest for this to be administered before admission. There is usually only a short time between admission and planned treatment.

If a person is admitted as an emergency or unexpectedly, they may wish the sacrament of the sick. Each hospital has a system for contacting the priest in emergencies.

The request has to be made to a nurse or to the ward secretary by the patient or a family-member asking that the priest be called then he will be paged. When the priest receives the call, and it is urgent, he will immediately attend. If it is not deemed urgent, the priest will see the patient before the end of his time on call. Every hospital has a priest on call usually from one of the local parishes.

Teams of extraordinary ministers are also present in the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Royal Infirmary, Children's Hospital, Gartnavel General, Gartnavel Royal, Leverndale, and the West of Scotland Cancer Centre . The volunteers all have a PVG and have undertaken Safeguarding Level 2 training. This ensures that patients are seen regularly which is key to effective pastoral care.

In accordance with confidentiality-rights (GDPR) the priest or lay minister is not routinely notified when a person is admitted unless a specific request is made by the patient or a member of their family. This is due to a person's right to privacy which is a human right.

Below is a Declaration people can cut out and keep for the day when they may be admitted to hospital.

PATIENT'S RELIGIOUS DECLARATION

I am a Roman Catholic.

While a patient in hospital, I wish to exercise my Human Right, as enshrined in the European Convention on Human Rights (Article 9~1), of practising my religion.

I request that the Roman Catholic Chaplain be informed of my admission to hospital, and that I receive a visit from the Roman Catholic Chaplain.

I give explicit consent for this information to be made available to the Roman Catholic Chaplain and I would request that this document form part of my personal case notes.

Assisted Dying: What does it all mean?

Saturdays 10th, 17th and 24th June 2023 at 2pm

ST ALOYSIUS' CHURCH, Garnethill

Ogilvie Centre

25, Rose Street, G3 6RE

Liam McArthur MSP is proposing a bill to legalise assisted dying. This will undermine the right to life and put vulnerable people at risk of coming under pressure to end their lives prematurely.

A series of Holyrood Webinars on Assisted Dying, Euthanasia and Palliative Care will be shown featuring Professor Marie Fallon, University of Edinburgh, Dr Miro Griffiths, University of Leeds, Dr. Leonie Herx, Queens University, Kingston, Canada and Tanni Grey Thompson, television presenter and former wheelchair racer.

Discussion will follow and Gordon McDonald, CEO of Care not Killing will be in attendance

All are welcome.
