Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you

we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Highest, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

The Liturgy of the Word

A reading from the 2nd Book of Samuel 5: 1-

‘They anointed David king over Israel.’

In those days: All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, ‘Behold, we are your bone and flesh. In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. And the Lord said to you, “You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over Israel.”’ So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel.

*The Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 121

“Let us go to the house of the Lord”, they said,
Oh how great was our joy when we heard!
Now our feet are set firm on Jerusalem's soil
at the gates of the City of God,
May the house of the Lord be at peace.

For the city is blessed now with unity,
all restored in its beauty and calm.
Here the tribes of the Lord in their thousands have come to give thanks unto Israel's God.
May the house of the Lord be at peace.

For they come to sing praises and thanks to God,
and, as pilgrims, obey his commands.
In the city of justice where David has ruled
they now pray for Jerusalem's peace.
May the house of the Lord be at peace.

In this city may wholeness and peace abound,
in your houses and palaces, peace!
For the sake of my friends and relatives here
for the sake of God's House, pray, "Shalom".
May the house of the Lord be at peace.

A reading from the Letter to the Colossians 1: 12-20

‘He has transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son.’
Brothers and Sisters: Let us give thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption,
the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities — all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the Church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

The word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

To welcome the Gospel

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. I am the light of the world, says the Lord. Anyone who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia

from the holy Gospel according to Luke 23: 35-43

‘Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom.’

At that time: The rulers scoffed at Jesus, saying, ‘He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!’ The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine and saying, ‘If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!’ There was also an inscription over him, ‘This is the King of the Jews.’

One of the criminals who were hanged there railed at Jesus, saying, ‘Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!’ But the other rebuked him, saying, ‘Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong.’ And he said, ‘Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.’ And he said to him, ‘Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise.’

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Homily

The Nicene Creed

i believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and i look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SSVP

St. Leo and St. Albert's SSVP are working together to support the children of St Albert's Primary School in their initiative to "GIVE" at Christmas by reaching out to the local community and to a different generation. So, the school is inviting older members of the local community for a Christmas Celebration on Thursday December 11th, 11am -2.30pm.

Thanks to the generosity of parishioners, the SW group of the SSVP regularly give local schools money so that support can be given to individual families in need, to provide clothes and essentials for their children.

 16 Nov 2025

Today (Nov 16th) we celebrate the World Day of the Poor. I thank all those in dioceses and parishes who have promoted initiatives of solidarity with the most disadvantaged. I symbolically present anew the Apostolic Exhortation Dilexite—"I Have Loved You"—on love for the poor. Pope Francis had been preparing it during the final months of his life and, with great joy, I have brought it to completion.
