Entry

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness,
and all these things shall be added unto you;
allelu, alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, allelu, alleluia

Ask and it shall be given unto you, seek and ye shall find;
knock, and it shall be opened unto you; allelu, alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, allelu, alleluia

Act of Penance

Gloria, gloria in excelsis Deo. Gloria, gloria in excelsis Deo.

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

A reading from the Book of Genesis 3;9-15

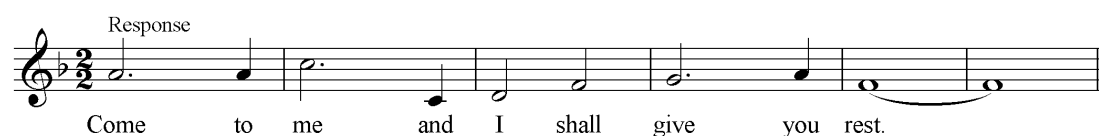

'I was afraid because I was naked, and I hid'

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden;' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, 'Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts. You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life. I will make you enemies of each other: you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring. It will crush your head and you will strike its heel.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 129

From the depths I call to you. Listen, Lord, and hear my pleading.
Come to me and I shall give you rest.

Love and mercy flow from you, Lord of life and kind redeemer
Come to me and I shall give you rest.

In the dark I hope for you, you are light of new day dawning
Come to me and I shall give you rest.

Weak and frail we come to you, God of love and new beginning
Come to me and I shall give you rest.

A reading from the 2nd Letter to the Corinthians 4: 13 – 5: 1

We are being trained to carry the weight of eternal glory

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture – I believed, and therefore I spoke – we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! I give you a new commandment: love one another as I love you, love one another as I love you.

Alleluia, alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 3: 20-35

A kingdom divided against itself cannot stand

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either – it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, we bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead & his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
& I look forward to the resurrection of the dead,
& the life of the world to come. Amen

During the Preparation of the Gifts

O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer,
when I call answer me.
O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer,
Come and listen to me. (2)

Schubert Sanctus and Schubert Memorial Bellahouston Agnus

Communion Verse.

His goodness shall follow me always to the end of my days.
Glory to the Father, glory to the Son,
glory to the Holy Spirit now and for ever. Amen.
His goodness shall follow me always to the end of my days.

A Hymn of Columba

Oh, circle us now with love and with peace.
Our strength and our guide, Lord, we pray.
We have nothing to fear when you are so near.
You are King of the night and the day.
All glory to God the Father of all,
To the Son and the Spirit give praise.

I ask you, my God, to bless and protect the fam'ly and friends that I love.
Enfold us in love, surround us with peace;
be our strength and our light and our life.
All glory to God the Father of all,
To the Son and the Spirit give praise.

The Molendinar Lecture June 14th

The award winning journalist, broadcaster and writer Fatima Manji will give this year's Molendinar Lecture on Friday June 14 at Glasgow City Chambers on the theme of Glasgow's built heritage and the forgotten histories of its builders.

The lecture – which will be introduced by Archbishop Nolan - is the highlight of the St Mungo Festival's summer season.

The first ever Molendinar Lecture was given by Archbishop Conti in 2012.

Fatima's journalism has included breaking major national and international stories including the tale of the Saudi princesses held hostage for years by their father the king, investigating an MI5 spy accused of entrapment in northern Ireland and giving voice to the heart rending testimonies of victims of war in Iraq. She spent more than a decade reporting for and presenting Channel 4 News. Her book Hidden Heritage explores the secret stories of art and architecture across Britain, unravelling the country's long relationship with the 'Orient'. It has been critically acclaimed for its fresh perspective on a nation struggling with identity and the legacy of empire.

Programme

5.15 pm – Civic reception.

6.15 pm – Welcome from Glasgow's Lord Provost & response from the Chair of Medieval Glasgow Trust.

6.45 pm – Lecture.

7.30 pm – Q & A followed by a vote of thanks.

The weather prospects have improved! After some overnight rain on Saturday it'll clear up on Sunday apparently. Fingers crossed! I hope as many of you as possible will come. There'll be burgers, hotdogs and chicken skewers with a delectable array of salads followed by several strawberry themed puddings. What's not to like?

Plant Sale

And maybe buy something from our small, but perfectly formed plant sale. We'll be setting up at 2 on Saturday if anyone is available to help.

Tidy Up

Thankyou to Aine, Lorraine, Maria and Lawrence and whoever did the mowing of the lawn for their work on the side room and the garden.
